

The Garden of Gethsemane

Bible Verse

Jesus prayed, “Father, if you are willing, take this cup from me; yet not my will, but yours be done.” (Luke 22:42)

Teacher Enrichment

This is the fourth lesson in the LENT series which explores the last days of Jesus’ life. Understanding the events leading up to and including Jesus dying on the cross helps us grasp the magnitude of Jesus’ sacrifice for us. As we prepare to celebrate Jesus’ resurrection at Easter, each week will examine the significance of an event and the actions of the people involved.

After the Last Supper, Jesus knew the time of His death was near. As Jesus faced His suffering and death, we find Him praying to God in the Garden of Gethsemane. Just as we often do when faced with challenges and difficulties, Jesus asked God to “take this cup from me.” However, even knowing all that was to come on Good Friday, Jesus ultimately surrendered to God’s will rather than His own. Jesus’s choice to follow God’s will is contrasted by Judas’ choice to betray Jesus for 30 coins of silver. We do not know if Judas was motivated by greed, power, jealousy, fear or lack of faith, but we do know he did not follow God’s will. When we hear God’s voice in our life it can be difficult to follow His will and even more difficult if God’s will is challenging. There are times when we choose to follow God’s will as Jesus did and other times when we turn away from God as Judas did.

This lesson will teach children to follow God’s will and to turn to prayer and the Bible to determine God’s will and to ask God for help when faced with hard things. Children will also examine times they have turned away from God and understand how to ask for forgiveness.

The Lesson

SUPPLIES: Following God's Will worksheets, Following God's Will Discussion Guide, Paper coins, Judas' Coin pouch, The Garden of Gethsemane Tree outline, Paper Leaves, glue, pencils, markers/colored pencils

SAY: Today we learned about God's will. We heard how Jesus faced suffering and death, and even though God was asking Jesus to do a hard thing, He chose to follow God's will. We also heard about Judas who chose NOT to follow God's will. Judas turned away from God and betrayed Jesus.

SAY: We are going to learn about other times in the Bible where God asked people to do difficult things and see if they chose to follow God's will.

- ◆ Divide the children into three groups.
- ◆ Assign each group a Bible passage and give them the corresponding Following God's Will worksheet.
- ◆ Allow groups about 5 minutes to complete the worksheet.
- ◆ After the 5 minutes are up, have each group share their answers with the entire class. Use the Following God's Will Discussion Guide to provide additional insight.

SAY: Now that we've talked about God's will in the lives of these people from the Bible, let's talk about God's will in our own lives. We have all faced challenging things. Sometimes we may choose to turn away from God like Judas did. Other times we may need help from God to do what He is asking. Sometimes we just need help making the choice to follow God's will.

SAY: Today we are going to make a craft that includes coins and leaves. I want you to think of times you turned away from God and did not follow His will. Write those on the paper coins then place the coins in the coin pouch. At the end we will seal our pouches and ask God to forgive our mistakes. What you write on the coins will be private.

SAY: For the leaves, think of things God is asking you to do or hard things you could ask God to help you face and write them on the leaves. Glue the leaves onto the tree to create a "garden." This will help you remember to pray to God for help in following His will like Jesus did in the Garden of Gethsemane.

- ◆ Place the paper coins and paper leaves in the middle of the table so children can take as many as they need.
- ◆ Provide each child with a coin pouch and a The Garden of Gethsemane Tree outline.
- ◆ Have children write on the coins and leaves and cut them out.
- ◆ Direct children to cut out and assemble the coin pouch. (See end of Teacher's Guide)
- ◆ Have children place their coins in their coin pouch and glue the leaves to the tree outline.

SAY: Before we leave today, let's pray for forgiveness for the things we wrote on our coins. Put all your coins in your pouch and seal it up.

Dear God, We know we have not always followed your will for our lives. There have been times we have turned away from you and betrayed you like Judas did. Please forgive us for our sins. Help us to listen for your voice. Help us to follow your will for our lives. Amen

SAY: Let your tree be a reminder to ask for God's help when faced with challenges. Pray to God for guidance and for help in following God's will.

Closing

- ◆ If time remains before parents arrive, encourage children to return to their Praying in the Garden activity sheet if they did not complete it. Also encourage conversation between children and with you. This is another opportunity to build relationships with the children in your classroom!

Following God's Will

Discussion Guide

Jonah

- God asked Jonah to go to Nineveh and tell the people there that they were sinning. Jonah was scared and ran in the other direction! It can be hard to tell people they are sinning or making wrong choices. People do not want to hear what they are doing wrong. People might get mad at Jonah.
- God may ask us to stand up to bullies; tell our friends no if they try to get us to do the wrong thing or do something we know we shouldn't; tell others about God and how God would want them to make different choices.
- It can be hard to tell people they are doing something wrong because they might get mad at you; they might make fun of you if you say you can't do something like play a M-rated video game or watch an R-rated movie; if you stand up to a bully they might start teasing you.

Moses

- God asked Moses to go to the Pharaoh of Egypt and ask for the Israelites to be freed. The Israelites were slaves and were being treated badly. It can be hard to talk to an important person like a Pharaoh; you might be scared to talk to them; they might get mad at you; they might punish you. Moses was one person and God was asking him to help free thousands of people!
- God may ask us to stand up to bullies; ask us to help people who are being treated badly or suffering (homeless, other countries where leaders persecute people, wars, racism)

- It can be hard to help people who are suffering; it can seem overwhelming (how can I possibly help an entire country of people?); you might not feel brave enough or important enough. You might need to travel to another country (mission trips) and that can be scary or expensive (might need to give up something else to pay to go).

Disciples

- Jesus asked the disciples to feed all the people who were gathered (over 5,000 men). They did not have enough food to feed everyone and would have had to buy food with their own money.
- God may ask us to feed people who are hungry – homeless, food pantry, other countries.
- It can be hard to help feed others if we don't have enough for everyone. It may mean giving up something else so we can donate money or food to others. Going to SOME to feed the homeless means getting up VERY early in the morning and giving up our time to do it. Going on a mission trip can be scary or expensive (may need to give up something else like a vacation or money)
